

BACK IN OFFICE

freshman class officers share why they went into student government

"I have been doing student government for six years, so I wanted to continue it in high school."

-ARIANNA BROWN. SENATOR

"I like working with numbers and money, and I plan to host fundraisers and help other people."

- HENRY BURNHAM. TREASURER

"I have friends that were doing it or that were running, and it is just something I have thought about and it is good for resumes and stuff like that, and I plan on planning different events."

-LEO HAMMONS. VICE PRESIDENT

"My brother's friend [junior] Yogi [Roa] is in Senate, and he said it was a really fun club so I joined it."

-CLAY RICHARDS. SENATOR

"I joined as a secretary because I wanted to be involved in my school and I thought it was a cool opportunity to make a difference."

- KAITLYN ROCKWOOD. SECRETARY

"My sister was also class president, so I wanted to take on a leadership role in Carmel High School and I wanted to change some problems."

-LUKE WARRINGTON. PRESIDENT
