

Q&A

WITH SENIOR ADS EDITOR
BRYAN NGUYEN

Q: Why did you join Yearbook Staff?

A: I joined staff because I wanted to be apart of a club that seemed really fun, but also something that would better my design skills.

Q: What is your favorite memory from being on staff?

A: My favorite memory is when I danced in front of everyone, multiple times.

Q: What motivated you to be an editor?

A: I really liked the idea of being senior ads editor because it fit my skills and personality the best.

Q: What do you like most about staff?

A: I like how everyone is really nice and friendly to each other.

Q: How would you describe your experience in staff?

A: It's been the ultimate learning experience for me, in terms of designing, leadership, and interpersonal skills.

Q: What is the most important lesson yearbook has taught you?

A: The most important lesson is planning ahead will save you in any situation.

Q: What is the best and worst part of being an editor?

A: The best part is that I don't have to take as much photos as other photographers. The worst is the work load.

Q: How do you plan to use your yearbook staff skills in college?

A: I plan to use my design skills to aid in my presentation and promotional flyers/posters I probably will have to make.

Q: What is the biggest challenge being an editor?

A: The biggest challenge is the time management, because I have to balance my personal life and the work I do for yearbook.

Q: Do you wish you had another role on staff?

A: No, I really like my role I have now.

Q: What is the biggest challenge you've faced in all your years of being in staff?

A: My biggest challenge would be the one I have now: doing senior ads.

Q: What is the funniest moment you witnessed in staff?

A: The funniest moment I've witnessed is when everyone laughed at me for pronouncing rotisserie chicken wrong.

Q: How does it feel like at the end of the year when you get to hold the yearbook in your hands?

A: It feels super rewarding and I get a great sense of satisfaction when I see what we've all made.

Q: What is your favorite thing about being on staff?

A: My favorite thing about staff is that I have made the greatest friends and memories here.

Q: What is one spread horror story you went through?

A: On my first year on staff, one of our spreads got totally deleted so my partner and I had to redo it.

Q: What is the hardest thing about being on staff?

A: The hardest thing about being on staff is the time commitment.

Q: Do you think being on staff will help you in the future?

A: IYes, it will help me be more sociable and really help me when I have to design visually appealing content.

Q: Do you plan on following some sort of route in the journalism branch?

A: No, I don't think I want to do anything in journalism.

Q: How has yearbook helped you improve your life skills?

A: Yearbook has made me much more confident; I am less afraid of meeting and talking to new people.

Q: What is something you want to tell future yerds?

A: I would tell future yerds to really enjoy the time they have on staff and to not be too shy to branch out. You really do meet and make the amazing friends from staff.
